

White Papers and Reports Series

(version September, 2014)

SYSTEMATIC REVIEWS & SYNTHESSES

A. Youth Mental Health Series

1. Youth, technology, and mental health: A systematic review of current literature
2. Parent and caregiver perspectives on child/youth mental health
3. A patient journeys approach to child/youth mental health

B. Methodological Shifts Series

1. Methodological shifts in youth studies: International innovations
2. Methodological shifts in youth studies: Arts-based methodologies
3. Methodological shifts in youth studies: Digital storytelling
4. Methodological shifts in youth studies: Photo-Voice
5. Methodological shifts in youth studies: Technology and young lives over time and place
6. Methodological shifts in youth studies: Documentary film with, for and by youth
7. Methodological shifts in youth studies: Ethics in online qualitative research
8. Methodological shifts in youth studies: Dyadic interviews in qualitative research

TECHNICAL REPORTS

1. Data security and management in the Digital Age (Matthew)
2. Qualitative software in Young Lives Research Lab (Ruby)
3. Textual data analysis with Alceste and Lexico (Dr. Simon Laflamme)
4. Qualitative Research Lab procedures (internal, Matthew)
5. Building veracious longitudinal qualitative visual/digital data sets
6. Data collection through social media